Preamble

The following regulations have been adopted on the basis of Articles 49(2)(a) and 50(1) of the UEFA Statutes.

I General Provisions

Article 1

Scope of application

- 1.01 The present regulations govern the rights, duties and responsibilities of all parties participating and involved in the preparation and organisation of the 2011/12 UEFA European Under-19 Championship (hereinafter the competition).

FIFA U-20 World Cup

- 1.02 When the final round takes place in an even year, the UEFA European Under-19 Championship counts as the European qualifying competition for the FIFA U-20 World Cup.

II Entries – Admission - Duties

Article 2

Entries for the competition

- 2.01 UEFA stages the competition every year. The competition is open to all UEFA member associations (hereinafter associations) and takes place only if at least 26 associations have entered.

Admission criteria

- 2.02 To be eligible to participate in the competition, an association must fulfil the following criteria:
- a) it must confirm in writing that the association itself, as well as its players and officials, agree to respect the statutes, regulations, directives and decisions of UEFA;
 - b) it must confirm in writing that the association itself, as well as its players and officials, agree to recognise the jurisdiction of the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) in Lausanne as defined in the relevant provisions of the UEFA Statutes and agree that any proceedings before the CAS concerning admission to, participation in or exclusion from the competition will be held in an expedited manner in accordance with the Code of Sports-related Arbitration of the CAS and with the directions issued by the CAS;

- c) it must fill in the official entry documents (i.e. all documents containing the information deemed necessary by the UEFA administration for ascertaining compliance with the admission criteria), which must reach the UEFA administration by the deadline set by the latter and communicated in due course through a circular letter sent to all associations.

Admission procedure

- 2.03 The UEFA General Secretary decides on admission to the competition. Such decisions are final.

Duties of the associations

- 2.04 On entering the competition, participating associations agree:
 - a) to comply with the Laws of the Game issued by the IFAB;
 - b) to respect the principles of fair play as defined in the UEFA Statutes;
 - c) to play in the competition until their elimination and to field their strongest team throughout the competition;
 - d) to stage all matches in the competition in accordance with the present regulations;
 - e) to comply with all decisions regarding the competition taken by the UEFA Executive Committee, the UEFA administration or any other competent body and communicated appropriately (by UEFA circular letter or by official letter, fax or email);
 - f) to observe the UEFA Safety and Security Regulations for all matches in the competition;
 - g) to stage all matches in the competition in a stadium meeting the structural criteria of the stadium category required by paragraph 11.01;
 - h) not to represent UEFA without UEFA's prior written approval;
 - i) to indemnify, defend and hold UEFA and its subsidiaries and all of their officers, directors, employees, representatives, agents and other auxiliary persons free and harmless against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, claims, actions, fines and expenses (including reasonable legal expenses) of whatsoever kind or nature resulting from, arising out of, or attributable to any non-compliance by the participating association or any of its players, officials, employees, representatives or agents with these regulations.

III Cup – Medals – Respect Fair Play Trophy

Article 3

Cup

- 3.01 A challenge cup donated by UEFA is presented to the winning association for one year. The holders are responsible for the loss of or any damage to the cup, and must return it to the UEFA administration in perfect condition two months before the next final round. UEFA is responsible for engraving the cup with the name of the winning association. The challenge cup becomes the permanent property of any association that wins it three consecutive times or five times in ten years. Once a cycle of three successive wins or five in total has been completed, the association concerned starts a new cycle from zero.
- 3.02 If, for any reason, the competition cannot take place, the challenge cup must be returned to the UEFA administration.

Replica

- 3.03 The winning association also receives a scaled-down replica of the challenge cup, which it may keep.
- 3.04 The winning association may make one additional copy of the challenge cup, provided the copy is clearly marked as a replica and does not exceed four-fifths of the size of the original.
- 3.05 Cups and replica cups awarded to winners of the competition (past and current) must remain within the relevant association's control at all times and must not leave the association's country without UEFA's prior written consent. Associations must not permit a cup or replica cup to be used in any context where a third party (including, without limitation, any of their sponsors or other commercial partners) is granted visibility or in any other way which could lead to an association between any third party and the cup and/or the competition. Associations must comply with any cup use guidelines that may be issued by UEFA from time to time.

Medals

- 3.06 Thirty gold medals are presented to the winning team and thirty silver medals to the runners-up. Additional medals may not be produced.

Commemorative items

- 3.07 The teams placed second to eighth receive a commemorative plaque.
- 3.08 Each player participating in the final round receives a commemorative diploma.

Special awards

- 3.09 A special award may be presented to the top goal-scorer of the final round.

Respect fair play trophy

- 3.10 A fair play competition takes place in which only the matches of the final round of the competition are taken into account. The winner receives a scaled-down replica trophy which it may keep.

IV Responsibilities

Article 4

Responsibilities of the participating associations

- 4.01 The associations are responsible for the behaviour of their players, officials, members, supporters and any person carrying out a function at a match on their behalf.
- 4.02 If necessary, associations must apply for visas from the diplomatic mission of the host country well in advance of a tournament.

Responsibilities of the host association

- 4.03 The association in the territory of which matches in the qualifying, elite and final rounds are being staged is considered the host association.
- 4.04 In conjunction with UEFA, the host association undertakes to make the appropriate arrangements for the staging of the matches it is hosting.
- 4.05 The host association is responsible for order and security before, during and after the match. The host association may be called to account for incidents of any kind and may be disciplined.
- 4.06 The contracts required for the organisation of matches are concluded by the host association in its own name and on its own account. The same provision applies to agreements reached with government authorities.
- 4.07 The host association of the final round undertakes to observe the staging agreement signed with UEFA. It is responsible for all match-related organisational tasks and must fully respect any and all rights granted by UEFA to third parties in connection with the final round.
- 4.08 Unless special permission is granted by UEFA, the grounds reserved for training and matches in the final round may not be used for other matches or events during the three days prior to the tournament or during the event itself.

V Insurance

Article 5

- 5.01 All persons involved in the competition are responsible for their own insurance cover.

- 5.02 The participating associations are responsible for and undertake to conclude all necessary and adequate insurance cover for their delegations, including players and officials, at their own expense for the whole duration of the competition.
- 5.03 Host associations staging matches and/or tournaments in the competition must conclude adequate insurance coverage with reputable insurers for all of their risks arising under these regulations at their own expense, in accordance with their respective responsibilities, as set out in Article 4 of these regulations and in the staging agreement (final round). The third-party liability policy must include an appropriate guaranteed sum for damages to persons, objects and property, as well as for pure economic losses corresponding to the specific circumstances of the associations concerned. Likewise, the policies must fully cover all risks connected with the staging of the matches or tournaments in question (including, but not limited to, force majeure events). In any case, the host associations must ensure that UEFA is included as co-insured party in all insurance policies as defined in the present paragraph.
- 5.04 If the host association is not the owner of a stadium used, it is also responsible for ensuring that the stadium owner and/or tenant in question provides a fully comprehensive insurance cover, including third-party liability and property damage. If appropriate insurance policies are not provided by the stadium owner and/or tenant in due time, the host association is required to conclude the necessary additional insurance cover at its own cost, failing which it may be concluded by UEFA at the host association's expense.
- 5.05 Claims for damages against UEFA are expressly excluded and anyone involved must hold UEFA harmless from any and all claims for liability arising in relation to the competition. In any case, UEFA may request anyone involved to provide, free of charge, written releases of liability and/or hold harmless notes, and/or confirmations and/or copies of the policies concerned in one of UEFA's official languages.
- 5.06 For the final round, UEFA concludes insurance coverage in accordance with its respective responsibilities, as set out in the staging agreement.

VI Competition System

Article 6

Phases of the competition

- 6.01 The competition consists of a qualifying round, elite round and final round.
- 6.02 Participating associations are divided up as follows:
- The host association of the final round – Estonia – qualifies automatically for the final round.

- The teams of the top three associations in the applicable coefficient rankings enter the competition in the elite round. For the 2011/12 competition, the teams of England, France, and Spain benefit from qualifying round byes.
- The 48 remaining teams contest the qualifying round.

A. Qualifying round, elite round

Group formations

- 6.03 The 48 associations participating in the qualifying round are drawn into 12 groups of four teams.
- 6.04 For the draw for the qualifying round, the UEFA administration establishes coefficient rankings based on sporting results of the last three seasons as well as the draw procedure.
- 6.05 The three teams with qualifying-round byes, the 12 group winners, the 12 runners-up and the best third-ranked team from the qualifying round play the elite round.
- 6.06 To determine the best third-ranked team from the qualifying round, only the results of the third-placed team against the winners and runners-up in each group are taken into account and the following criteria apply in the order given:
- a) higher number of points obtained in these matches;
 - b) superior goal difference from these matches;
 - c) higher number of goals scored in these matches;
 - d) fair play conduct of the teams in all group matches in the qualifying round;
 - e) drawing of lots.
- 6.07 A draw for the elite round is conducted to place the 28 participating associations into seven groups of four teams each. The UEFA administration establishes the draw procedure and communicates it prior to the draw.

Match system

- 6.08 All matches in the qualifying and elite rounds are played in the form of mini-tournaments in one of the countries in the group. Each team plays each of the other teams in the group once, with three points awarded for a win, one point for a draw and none for a defeat.

Equality of points at mini-tournaments

- 6.09 If two or more teams are equal on points on completion of the group matches, the following criteria are applied to determine the rankings:
- a) Higher number of points obtained in the group matches played among the teams in question.

- b) Superior goal difference resulting from the group matches played among the teams in question.
 - c) Higher number of goals scored in the group matches played among the teams in question.
 - d) If, after having applied criteria a) to c), two teams still have an equal ranking, criteria a) to c) are reapplied to determine the final ranking of the two teams. If this procedure does not lead to a decision, criteria e) and f) apply.
 - e) Results of all group matches:
 - 1. Superior goal difference.
 - 2. Higher number of goals scored.
 - f) Drawing of lots.
- 6.10 If two teams which have the same number of points and the same number of goals scored and conceded play their last group match against each other and are still equal at the end of that match, their final rankings are determined by kicks from the penalty mark (Article 16) and not by the criteria listed under 6.09 a) to f). This procedure is applicable if a ranking of the teams is required to determine the group winner (qualifying round and elite round) or the runners-up and the third-ranked team (qualifying round).

Drawing of lots

- 6.11 If on completion of a mini-tournament a draw is required, the lots are drawn in the teams' hotel after the final match. The draw is made by the UEFA match delegate and the heads of delegation or team representatives must sign a document stating that they accept the result of the draw.

Article 7

Organisation of the mini-tournaments

- 7.01 The mini-tournament hosts are determined according to Annex I, point 1.

Match dates

- 7.02 The match dates must be agreed between the four associations in each group according to the criteria stated in Annex I, point 2.
- 7.03 Qualifying round matches must be played between 1 July and mid-November 2011.
- 7.04 Elite round matches must be played by the end of May 2012.

Match venues

- 7.05 Match venues must be fixed by the host association and announced to its opponents and the UEFA administration at least 60 days before the start of the mini-tournament by means of the form provided for this purpose by the UEFA administration.

7.06 The host association must ensure that all tournament hotels are easily accessible. Unless the visiting associations give their approval, no tournament hotel may be situated more than a three-hour drive from the nearest international airport. Special approval from the UEFA administration is required for tournament venues located on islands or in other places which have few international flights or which necessitate internal flights. Unless the visiting associations agree otherwise, no match venue may be located more than a one-hour bus drive from all tournament hotels.

Kick-off times

7.07 Kick-off times must be announced to the opponents and to the UEFA administration at least 30 days before the start of the tournament. If required for reasons of sporting fairness, matches played on the last matchday must kick off at the same time.

7.08 Unless the UEFA administration grants special approval, associations are not allowed to fix kick-off times before 11.00 or after 21.00 (local time).

Arrival of the teams

7.09 Teams must arrive at the tournament venue one day before the start of the mini-tournament. Unless the team in question and the host association have agreed otherwise, teams arriving more than one day prior to the start of the tournament are responsible for the extra costs incurred as a result of their early arrival.

Departure of visiting teams

7.10 Visiting teams should leave the tournament venue the day after their last match. Teams departing any later bear the extra costs incurred as a result of their late departure.

Article 8

B. Final round

8.01 As a general rule, the final round is played as a tournament.

8.02 Eight teams take part in the final round. The host country qualifies automatically. The seven group winners of the elite round qualify.

8.03 The UEFA Executive Committee has entrusted Estonia with the organisation and staging of the final round.

8.04 The final round will take place between 3 and 15 July 2012.

8.05 If the final round cannot be played as a tournament, the UEFA administration decides on the playing system.

Local organising committee

- 8.06 The host association must set up a local organising committee (LOC), which is responsible for the following:
- proposing match venues and stadiums to the UEFA administration;
 - making all necessary arrangements for the staging of the matches;
 - adhering to the financial provisions as per Article 26.

Fixture list

- 8.07 The UEFA administration, in conjunction with the LOC, is responsible for confirming the venues, the fixture list and the kick-off times of the matches.

Group formations

- 8.08 A draw is conducted by the UEFA administration in the country of the host association to allocate the eight teams into two groups of four.
- 8.09 The two groups are formed as follows:

Group A: Teams A1, A2, A3 and A4

Group B: Teams B1, B2, B3 and B4

Match system

- 8.10 Each team plays each of the other teams in the group once, with three points awarded for a win, one point for a draw and none for a defeat. The group matches will be played according to the following schedule. The last two matches in each group must kick off at the same time. The first-named team is considered as the home team.

Group A

Matchday 1	Matchday 2	Matchday 3
A1 v A2	A1 v A3	A4 v A1
A3 v A4	A2 v A4	A2 v A3

Group B

Matchday 1	Matchday 2	Matchday 3
B1 v B2	B1 v B3	B4 v B1
B3 v B4	B2 v B4	B2 v B3

Tournament programme

8.11 The final round will be played according to the following schedule:

- Day 1: Arrival of participating teams
- Day 2: Tournament organisational meeting
- Day 3: Matchday 1
- Day 4: Rest day
- Day 5: Rest day
- Day 6: Matchday 2
- Day 7: Rest day
- Day 8: Rest day
- Day 9: Matchday 3
- Day 10: Departure of eliminated teams

- Day 12: Semi-finals
- Day 13: Departure of the eliminated teams
Rest day for the other teams
- Day 14: Rest day
- Day 15: Final
- Day 16: Departure

Equality of points

8.12 If two or more teams are equal on points on completion of the group matches, the following criteria are applied to determine the rankings:

- a) Higher number of points obtained in the group matches played among the teams in question.
- b) Superior goal difference resulting from the group matches played among the teams in question.
- c) Higher number of goals scored in the group matches played among the teams in question.
- d) If, after having applied criteria a) to c), two teams still have an equal ranking, criteria a) to c) are reapplied to determine the final ranking of the two teams. If this procedure does not lead to a decision, criteria e) to g) apply.
- e) Results of all group matches:
 - 1. Superior goal difference.
 - 2. Higher number of goals scored.

- f) Respect Fair Play ranking of the teams in question (only final round).
 - g) Drawing of lots.
- 8.13 If two teams which have the same number of points and the same number of goals scored and conceded play their last group match against each other and are still equal at the end of that match, their final rankings are determined by kicks from the penalty mark (Article 16) and not by the criteria listed under 8.12 a) to g). This procedure is only applicable if a ranking of the teams is required to determine the group winner and the runner-up.

Semi-finals

- 8.14 The group winners and runners-up contest the semi-finals according to the knockout system, as follows:

Semi-final 1: Winner of Group A v Runner-up of Group B

Semi-final 2: Winner of Group B v Runner-up of Group A

Final

- 8.15 The winning semi-finalists contest the final as follows:

Same number of goals in a semi-final, the final or a potential FIFA U-20 World Cup play-off match

- 8.16 If the final, a semi-final or a potential FIFA U-20 World Cup play-off match stands at a draw at the end of normal playing time, extra time of two periods of 15 minutes is played. If the two teams are still equal after extra time, the winner is determined by kicks from the penalty mark (Article 16).

VII Refusal to Play, Cancellation of a Match, Match Abandoned and Similar Cases

Article 9

Refusal to play and similar cases

- 9.01 If an association refuses to play or is responsible for a match not taking place or not being played in full, the Control and Disciplinary Body takes a decision in the matter.
- 9.02 The Control and Disciplinary Body can validate the result as it stood at the moment when the match was abandoned if the match result was to the detriment of the association responsible for the match being abandoned.
- 9.03 An association which refuses to play or is responsible for a match not taking place or not being played in full loses all rights to payments from UEFA.
- 9.04 Upon receipt of a reasoned and well-documented request from the association concerned, the UEFA administration may set an amount of compensation due for financial loss.

Article 10

Match cancelled before departure of the visiting team

- 10.01 If the host association finds that a match or mini-tournament cannot take place, for example because the field is not fit for play, it must notify the visiting association(s), the referees and the UEFA match delegates before their departure from home. The UEFA administration must be notified at the same time. The UEFA administration takes the necessary decision regarding the reorganisation of the match or mini-tournament.

Match cancelled after departure of the visiting team

- 10.02 If any doubt arises as to the condition of the field of play after a visiting team's departure from home, the referee decides on the spot whether or not it is fit for play.
- 10.03 If the referee declares that a match cannot commence because the field is not fit for play or for any other reason, it must, in principle, be played the next day, subject to the approval of the UEFA administration. An agreement must be reached within two hours of the referee's decision to cancel the match. In case of dispute, the UEFA administration fixes the date and kick-off time of the match. Its decision is final.

Match abandoned

- 10.04 If a match is abandoned before the end of normal time or during any extra time because the field is not fit for play or for any other reason, it must be replayed in full either the next day or on another date as agreed by the host association and the association(s) concerned, subject to the approval of the UEFA administration. An agreement must be reached within two hours of the referee's decision to abandon the match. In case of dispute, the UEFA administration fixes the date and kick-off time of the match. Its decision is final.

Expenses

- 10.05 If the circumstances require the host association to notify the visiting association and the referee before their departure from home of a match not being able to be played and if the host association fails to do so, it is responsible for the travel, board and lodging expenses of the visiting association and the referees.
- 10.06 If, after the arrival of the teams at the venue, a match or an entire mini-tournament cannot commence or has to be abandoned, the travel, board and lodging expenses of the visiting teams, as well as the relevant hosting costs, are borne by the associations concerned in equal parts.

VIII Stadiums, Match Balls and Match Organisation

Article 11

Stadium category

- 11.01 Unless stipulated otherwise in these regulations, all matches in the competition must be played in a stadium which meets the structural criteria of category 1, as defined in the UEFA Stadium Infrastructure Regulations (2010 edition).
- 11.02 The 50 VIP seats required for this stadium category must be covered.

Exceptions to a structural criterion

- 11.03 The UEFA administration may grant an exception to a specific structural criterion for the stadium category in question in cases of particular hardship and upon reasoned request, for instance owing to the current national legislation or if the fulfilment of all the required criteria would force an association to play its home matches on the territory of another association. An exception can be granted for one or more matches in the competition or for the whole duration of the competition. Such decisions are final.

Stadium certificate and safety requirements

- 11.04 Each host association is responsible for:
- a) inspecting every stadium concerned and issuing stadium certificates which have to be forwarded to the UEFA administration confirming that the stadiums meet the structural criteria of the required stadium category;
 - b) confirming to the UEFA administration that the stadium, including its facilities (emergency lighting system, first aid facilities, type of protection against intrusion by spectators into the playing area, etc.), has been thoroughly inspected by the competent public authorities and meets all the safety requirements laid down by the applicable national law.
- 11.05 The UEFA administration accepts or rejects the stadiums on the basis of this certificate and confirmation. Such decisions are final.

Stadium inspections

- 11.06 The UEFA administration may carry out stadium inspections at any time before and during the competition to check whether the required structural criteria have been and are still being met. Cases of non-conformity with an applicable structural criterion may be referred to the UEFA Control and Disciplinary Body, which decides on appropriate measures in accordance with the UEFA Disciplinary Regulations.

Artificial turf standard

- 11.07 Matches may be played on artificial turf, in accordance with the UEFA Stadium Infrastructure Regulations and provided that such artificial turf meets the FIFA International Artificial Turf Standard. A copy of the relevant FIFA certificate, issued within the 12 months preceding the relevant match, must be provided to the UEFA administration upon request.

- 11.08 The owner of the artificial turf and the host association are fully responsible for meeting the above requirements, in particular those related to:
- a) maintenance work and ongoing improvement measures; and
 - b) safety and environmental measures as set out in the FIFA Quality Concept – Handbook of Test Methods for Football Turf (May 2009 edition) and FIFA Quality Concept – Handbook of Requirements for Football Turf Surfaces (May 2009 edition).
- 11.09 The owner of the artificial turf and the host association must obtain sufficient warranties and/or guarantees related to the material and the installation from the manufacturer and the installer of the artificial turf.
- 11.10 UEFA cannot be held responsible for any damages to third parties resulting from the use of the artificial turf.

Floodlights

- 11.11 Matches may be played in daylight or under floodlights.
- 11.12 Evening matches may only be played at stadiums equipped with floodlight installations which provide sufficient light. The referee, in cooperation with the UEFA match delegate, takes a final decision in this respect.

Clocks

- 11.13 Clocks in the stadium showing the amount of time played may run during the match, provided they are stopped at the end of normal time in each half, i.e. after 45 and 90 minutes respectively. This stipulation also applies in the event of extra time (i.e. after 15 and 30 minutes).

Match balls

- 11.14 Balls must conform to the requirements laid down in the Laws of the Game.
- 11.15 For qualifying and elite round matches as well as training sessions, balls must be provided by the host association.
- 11.16 The balls used for matches and training sessions in the final round are, in principle, supplied by UEFA.

Article 12

Match organisation

- 12.01 The UEFA, FIFA and UEFA Respect flags, as well as the flags of the teams taking part in the match, must be flown at the stadium at all matches in the competition. In addition, the flag of the national association, region or city in which the match is being played may be flown.
- 12.02 The national anthems of both teams involved must be played.

- 12.03 At all matches in the competition, the players are invited to shake hands with their opponents and the referee team after the line-up ceremony as well as after the final whistle, as a gesture of fair play.
- 12.04 Only six team officials, one of whom must be a team doctor, and the seven substitute players are allowed to sit on the substitutes' bench, i.e. a total of 13 persons. The names of all these persons and their functions must be listed on the match sheet.
- 12.05 Smoking is not allowed in the technical area during matches.
- 12.06 The host association must ensure an appropriate medical service at matches, including stretchers and a sufficient number of carriers, an ambulance and stand-by medical personnel. Stretchers must be kept by the substitutes' benches.
- 12.07 The official UEFA representatives and at least four representatives of the visiting associations must be provided with top-category seats.
- 12.08 The host association must ensure that the venue data coordinator (VDC) appointed by UEFA to gather live data during the match is provided with:
 - a) a commentary position (or equivalent position) with dedicated broadband internet access, which needs to be in place from the morning of the match until 90 minutes after the final whistle, and
 - b) accreditation permitting access to the referees' dressing room.

IX Media Matters

Article 13

Access to training sessions

- 13.01 Teams must make their last training session before each match open to the media for at least 15 minutes if requested. In principle this training session takes place on the day before the match, in the same stadium as the match, unless otherwise agreed with UEFA. In addition and upon request, the manager/coach and at least one key player from each team should be available to the media on the day before each game.

Field of play and technical zone

- 13.02 No representatives of the written press or audio media are allowed in the playing area or the area between the boundaries of the field of play and the spectators.
- 13.03 A limited number of photographers, cameramen and production staff of the audiovisual rights holders – all equipped with the appropriate pitch-access accreditation – are allowed in the area between the boundaries of the field of play and the spectators (Annexes IIIa and IIIb). The only exceptions are the host broadcaster camera crew covering the team line-ups at the start of the match and up to two host broadcaster camera crews filming the teams after the end of the match.

Post-match interviews

- 13.04 If requested, teams must make their head coach and players available to the host broadcaster and other rights-holding audiovisual media for post-match interviews.

Post-match press conference and mixed zone

- 13.05 If applicable, the post-match press conference must start no later than 20 minutes after the end of the match. Both teams are obliged to make their head coach and at least one player available for this purpose. A mixed zone may be set up for the media on the way from the dressing rooms to the team transport area. This area offers reporters additional opportunities to conduct interviews and is accessible only to coaches, players and media representatives.

Written press

- 13.06 This section applies to media that report in writing only, for whatever platform (e.g. newspaper, website, mobile portal).
- 13.07 Accreditation applications from such media will be accepted on condition that they do not cover the game live in sound and/or pictures.
- 13.08 Therefore, such media will be accredited as written press, with access to the post-match press conference and mixed zone.

Photographs

- 13.09 Photographs taken by officially accredited photographers may be published online (including internet and mobile) for editorial purposes only, subject to the following conditions:
- they must appear as stills and not as moving pictures or quasi-video feed;
 - there must be an interval of at least 20 seconds between the posting of any two photographs published online.

X Laws of the Game

Article 14

- 14.01 Matches are played in conformity with the Laws of the Game promulgated by the International Football Association Board (IFAB).
- 14.02 Each match lasts 2 x 45 minutes.

Substitution of players

- 14.03 The substitution of three players per team is permitted in the course of the match. The use of substitution boards (preferably electronic) to indicate the substitution of players is compulsory. Substitution boards must be numbered on both sides.

- 14.04 During the game, substitutes are allowed to leave the technical area to warm up. At the pre-match organisational meeting, the referee determines where exactly they may warm up (behind the first assistant referee or behind the advertising boards behind the goal) and how many substitutes are allowed to warm up simultaneously. In principle, three substitutes per team are allowed to warm up at the same time; exceptionally, if space so permits, the referee can allow up to seven substitutes of each team to warm up simultaneously in the dedicated area. The team fitness coach (indicated on the match sheet) may join the players who are warming up and is responsible for the respect of the referee's instructions.

Match sheet

- 14.05 Before each match, each team receives a match sheet on which the numbers, surnames, first names and dates of birth of the 18 players in the squad must be indicated, together with the surnames and first names of the team officials seated on the substitutes' bench. The match sheet must be properly completed in block capitals and signed by the captain and the authorised team official.
- 14.06 The 11 first-named players must commence the match. The other seven players are designated as substitutes. The numbers on the players' shirts must correspond with the numbers indicated on the match sheet. The goalkeepers and team captain must be identified.
- 14.07 Both teams must hand their match sheets to the referee at least 75 minutes before kick-off.
- 14.08 If the match sheet is not completed and returned in time, the matter will be submitted to the Control and Disciplinary Body.
- 14.09 Only three of the substitutes listed on the match sheet may take part in the match. A player who has been substituted may take no further part in the match.
- 14.10 If there are fewer than seven players on either of the teams, the match is abandoned. In this case, the Control and Disciplinary Body decides on the consequences.

Replacement of players on the match sheet

- 14.11 After the match sheets have been completed, signed and returned to the referee by both teams, and if the match has not yet kicked off, the following provisions apply:
- a) If any of the first ten outfield players listed on the match sheet are not able to start the match for any reason, they may be replaced by any of the seven substitutes. Such replacements reduce the quota of substitute players accordingly. During the match, three players may still be replaced.

- b) If any of the substitute outfield players listed on the match sheet are not able to be fielded for any reason, they may not be replaced, which means that the quota of substitute outfield players is reduced accordingly.
- c) If the goalkeeper listed first on the match sheet is not able to be fielded for any reason, he may be replaced by the goalkeeper listed under the substitutes. The goalkeeper originally listed first on the match sheet may, however, still be used as a substitute goalkeeper. If this is not possible he may be replaced by another goalkeeper not previously listed on the match sheet.
- d) If the substitute goalkeeper is not able to be fielded for any reason, he may be replaced by another goalkeeper not previously listed on the match sheet.

Article 15

Half-time interval, break before extra time

- 15.01 The half-time interval lasts 15 minutes. If extra time is required, there is a five-minute break between the end of normal time and the start of extra time. As a rule, the players remain on the field of play during this five-minute break, at the discretion of the referee.

Article 16

Kicks from the penalty mark

- 16.01 For matches where the winners need to be decided by kicks from the penalty mark the procedure laid down in the Laws of the Game applies.
- 16.02 The referee decides which goal will be used for the kicks:
- a) For reasons of safety/security, state of the field of play, lighting or other similar reasons, the referee may choose which goal will be used without tossing a coin. In this case, he is not required to justify his decision, which is final.
 - b) If he considers that either goal can be used for the kicks, then, in the presence of the two captains, he decides that the head side of the coin corresponds to one goal and the tail side to the other. He then tosses the coin to determine which goal will be used.
- 16.03 To ensure that the procedure is strictly observed, the referee is assisted by the assistant referees and the fourth official, who also note down the numbers of the players on each team who take kicks from the penalty mark. The assistant referees position themselves according to the diagram in the Laws of the Game.
- 16.04 If the taking of kicks from the penalty mark cannot be completed because of reasons beyond control, the result is decided by the drawing of lots by the referee in the presence of the UEFA match delegate and the two team captains.

- 16.05 If through the fault of a team, the taking of kicks from the penalty mark cannot be completed, the provisions of paragraphs 9.01 to 9.04 apply.

XI Player Eligibility

Article 17

Nationality

- 17.01 Each association must select its national representative team from players who hold the nationality of its country and who comply with the provisions of Articles 15 to 18 of the Regulations governing the Application of the FIFA Statutes.

Age

- 17.02 Players are eligible to play in the competition if they were born on or after 1 January 1993. The national associations are responsible for the strict observation of this provision.
- 17.03 Each player taking part in the competition must be in possession of a valid passport or identity card of the country for which he is playing, containing a photograph and giving full particulars of his date of birth (day, month, year). Otherwise, he will not be allowed to take part in the competition.

Identification

- 17.04 For age and identity verification purposes, a signed copy of the final list of players must be submitted with each player's passport or identity card to the UEFA match delegate. A meeting with the UEFA representatives and the heads of delegation of the participating teams is held for this purpose the day before the start of the mini-tournament or of the final round.
- 17.05 For identification purposes, the UEFA match delegate arranges to make a visual check of each player participating in the competition. As a rule, this check takes place at a mealtime at the team's accommodation before the first match in a mini-tournament or in the final round. Only one such visual check is made.

Players registered for the qualifying and elite rounds

- 17.06 All players should undergo a medical examination, including cardiovascular screening, before the start of the competition.
- 17.07 Each participating association must provide the UEFA administration with a final list indicating the 18 players participating in the mini-tournament, as well as the head coach. This list must be completed on line and submitted to the UEFA administration by 12.00 CET the day before the start of the mini-tournament.

17.08 Only the 18 players named on the final 18-player list are entitled to play in the mini-tournament. With the exception of goalkeepers, who may be replaced only upon submission of written medical evidence in one of UEFA's official languages, no player can be replaced during the mini-tournament. In cases of particular hardship and upon reasoned request, the UEFA General Secretary may grant exceptions.

Players registered for the final round

17.09 Each association must ensure and confirm to UEFA by the deadline set for submitting the player list that all registered players have undergone a medical examination, including cardiovascular screening. This also applies to any potential substitute as referred to in paragraph 17.11. This medical examination must have been carried out within one year of the start of the final tournament. The UEFA administration provides each association with a document explaining all the mandatory examinations.

17.10 Each participating association must provide the UEFA administration with a final list indicating the 18 players participating in the final round, as well as the head coach. This list must be completed on line and submitted to the UEFA administration by 12.00 CET the day before the start of the tournament. Once this list has been submitted no changes are allowed with the exception of paragraph 17.11.

17.11 Injured or sick goalkeepers and a maximum of two injured or sick players may be replaced upon submission of written medical evidence in one of UEFA's official languages and approved by the UEFA doctor on duty at the final round. In cases of particular hardship and upon a reasoned request, the UEFA General Secretary may grant exceptions. Replaced players can take no further part in the final round.

17.12 The eight official 18 players lists will be published by the UEFA administration.

Responsibility

17.13 The associations are responsible for ensuring that the aforementioned provisions concerning player eligibility and lists of players are observed.

17.14 The UEFA administration decides on questions of player eligibility. In the event of disputes, the Control and Disciplinary Body takes a final decision.

- 19.06 If the referee and/or assistant referees do not arrive at the match venue by the evening before the start of the mini-tournament, the UEFA administration and all teams concerned must be informed immediately. The Referees Committee, in cooperation with the UEFA administration takes the appropriate decisions. If the Referees Committee decides to replace the referee and/or assistant referees and/or fourth official, its decision is final, and no protests against the person or nationality of the referee and/or assistant referees and/or fourth official are allowed.

Unfit referee

- 19.07 If a referee becomes unfit before or during a match and is unable to officiate, the designated substitute referee (see Annex IV) replaces him. If an assistant referee becomes unfit before or during a match and is unable to officiate, the fourth official replaces him. Such decisions are made on a case-by-case basis by the UEFA administration in cooperation with the Referees Committee. Such a decision is final.

Referee's report

- 20.04 In the case of repeated cautions in different matches, the offending player is suspended for one match in the same competition after the second and fourth caution, as well as after any subsequent cautions.

In case of anti-doping rule violations, UEFA will instigate disciplinary proceedings against the perpetrators and take the appropriate disciplinary measures in accordance with the UEFA Disciplinary Regulations and UEFA Anti-Doping Regulations. This may include the imposition of provisional measures.
- 24.03 UEFA may test any player at any time.
- 24.04 The associations undertake to ensure that the Acknowledgment and Agreement form (see Annex V) is duly completed and signed before the start of each of the three competition phases for each minor participating. These forms must be kept by the associations and submitted to UEFA upon request.

XVI Exploitation of the Commercial Rights

Article 27

Definitions

- 27.01 For the purpose of these regulations, the following definitions apply:
- a) “Qualifying competition” means the qualifying and elite rounds.
 - b) “Commercial rights” means any and all commercial rights and opportunities on a worldwide basis in and in relation to the final round and/or the qualifying competition (as applicable) including, without limitation, the relevant media rights, marketing rights and data rights, as defined hereafter.

- c) “Media rights” means the right to create, distribute and transmit on a linear and/or demand basis for reception at any time anywhere in the world by any and all means and in any and all media, whether now known or devised in the future (including, without limitation, all forms of television, radio, wireless and internet distribution), audiovisual, visual and/or audio coverage of all relevant aspects of the competition and all associated and/or related rights, including fixed media and interactive rights.
- d) “Marketing rights” means the right to exploit by any and all means and in any and all media, whether now known or devised in the future, any types of advertising, promotion (including, without limitation, electronic and virtual promotion and ticket promotions), endorsement, public relations, marketing, merchandising, licensing, franchising, sponsorship, hospitality, concessions, travel and tourism, publishing, betting, gaming, retailing and music, and all other commercial association rights and opportunities in relation to the final round and/or the qualifying competition (as applicable) that are not media rights or data rights.
- e) “Data rights” means the right to compile and exploit statistics and other data in relation to the final round and/or the qualifying competition (as applicable).

Imagery

27.02 In respect of each association participating in the competition, UEFA has the non-exclusive right to use and/or sub-license the right to use, free of charge: (i) photographic, audio, audiovisual and visual material of the association’s team, players and officials, (ii) the names, nicknames, records, relevant statistics, data, images and likenesses of the association’s team, players and officials and (iii) the association’s name, nickname, logos, marks, emblems, shirts and other kit colours and designs (with or without any references to the shirt sponsors and manufacturers), in each case, for (a) promotional purposes related to the competition, (b) staging and organising the competition (and future editions of the competition), (c) editorial purposes (including on/for UEFA digital services) and/or (d) other purposes reasonably designated by UEFA. Any such use may occur before and after the completion of the current competition and may include references to and/or branding of third parties including UEFA’s sponsors and other commercial partners for the final rounds provided that in any case no such reference or branding may imply an endorsement of any such third party or their products and/or services by the relevant official, player, association or team. Upon request, associations must supply UEFA, free of charge, with all appropriate material as well as the necessary documentation (including, without limitation, any third party consents) required to allow UEFA to use the rights granted under this article.

A. Qualifying competition

- 27.03 The host association of any match in the qualifying competition is authorised to exploit the commercial rights relating to such matches. In doing so, it must observe the stipulations of Article 48 of the UEFA Statutes and the Regulations governing the implementation of Article 48 of the UEFA Statutes, and any other instructions or guidelines issued by UEFA from time to time.
- 27.04 Notwithstanding Article 27.03, UEFA owns and has the sole right, to the exclusion of the participating associations and any other party, to exploit the marketing rights to the qualifying competition generally or as a collective whole, including, by way of example, the right to nominate sponsors in relation to the qualifying competition or the competition (including the qualifying competition) as collective wholes. No participating association may participate in or allow any third party to use any rights granted by the participating association in any aggregation of marketing rights in any way that would permit a third party to create an association with the qualifying competition, the competition or the final round generally or as collective wholes. As a result, any grant by a participating association of marketing rights relating to the qualifying competition must be conditional upon the grantee and other third parties not exploiting the relevant rights in such a manner. By way of example, no participating association may create, or permit a third party to use rights granted by it to create, a website that is promoted as an official or dedicated website of the qualifying competition as a whole.
- 27.05 All associations participating in the qualifying competition undertake to take all legal and other measures that UEFA deems appropriate at its sole discretion to prohibit, prevent and stop any unauthorised exploitation of the commercial rights to the qualifying competition and to protect the ownership thereof.
- 27.06 The commercial rights to any match in the qualifying competition may not be sold unless the sale is documented in a written agreement that provides for the payment of an appropriate fee to the host association. Any such fee forms part of the match receipts and remains with the host association.
- 27.07 All agreements relating to the exploitation of the commercial rights to any match in the qualifying competition must be presented to the UEFA administration upon request. The withholding of any such agreement will be referred to the Control and Disciplinary Body and may result in disciplinary sanctions.
- 27.08 All agreements relating to the exploitation of the media rights to any match in the qualifying competition must include (as an integral part thereof) Article 48 of the UEFA Statutes and the Regulations governing the implementation of Article 48 of the UEFA Statutes. Furthermore, any such agreement must stipulate that if any amendment is made to such regulations, the agreement shall be amended as necessary to conform with the relevant amendment within 30 days of the new regulations coming into force.

- 27.09 For all qualifying competition matches, associations undertake to provide UEFA, free of charge and at least 24 hours prior to the kick-off of each match, with access to the television frequency information for receiving the broadcast signal at a location of UEFA's choice. These broadcasts can be recorded by UEFA in particular for the purposes envisaged in paragraph 27.02, and a copy of the recording may be purchased at cost price by the associations participating in the respective match. If the signal is unavailable for whatever reason, associations undertake to provide UEFA free of charge, in HDCAM or, if not available, in Digibeta (or another broadcast standard to be confirmed with UEFA in advance), with a recording of the entire match, to be sent to a destination of UEFA's choice for receipt within seven days of the match. The associations must ensure that any person owning rights to the above materials grants UEFA the right to use and exploit and authorise others to use and exploit, by any and all means and in any and all media whether now known or invented in the future, throughout the world, for the full duration of such rights, up to 15 minutes of audio and/or visual material from each match, free of charge and without payment of any associated clearance costs. Associations acknowledge that such use may be aimed in particular at directly or indirectly promoting the competition, including with programmes produced by or on behalf of UEFA.
- 27.10 Participating associations may not use or authorise any third party to use any of the registered or unregistered UEFA European Under-19 Championship trade marks or any graphic material or artistic forms developed in connection with the competition in programmes, promotions, publications or advertising or otherwise without the prior written consent of UEFA and may not develop, use, register, adopt or create any mark, logo, or symbol which refers to the qualifying competition, the competition or the final round or which, in UEFA's reasonable opinion, is confusingly similar to, is a colourable imitation of, is a derivation of, or unfairly competes with such trademarks, materials or forms.

Article 28

B. Final round

- 28.01 UEFA owns and has the sole right to exploit all of the commercial rights to the final round. UEFA may exercise this right to exploit these commercial rights at its sole discretion and on a worldwide basis.
- 28.02 All participating associations undertake to take all legal and other measures that UEFA deems appropriate at its sole discretion to prohibit, prevent and stop any unauthorised exploitation of the commercial rights to the final round and to ensure that all such commercial rights to the final round are owned and exercised solely and exclusively by UEFA and that UEFA may exploit them without any restrictions whatsoever. In this regard, no association may use or exploit, directly or indirectly, any commercial rights to the final round without the express prior written agreement of UEFA and subject to such conditions as UEFA may require. Each association must ensure that its partners, commercial or otherwise, do not use or otherwise exploit directly or indirectly any commercial rights to the final round without UEFA's express prior written agreement, which may be granted or withheld at its sole discretion.

28.03 Unless otherwise approved by UEFA in writing, a participating association may not display third-party commercial identification or branding in any stadium chosen for the final round.

28.04 UEFA has no responsibility or liability in connection with any agreement entered into by an association relating to the exploitation of the commercial rights to the final round.

ANNEX I: Instructions for the Organisation and Staging of Mini-tournaments

This annex sets out the requirements for hosting a mini-tournament in the UEFA European Under-19 Championship.

UEFA's Youth Competition Mini-Tournament Manual (2011 edition) that all member associations have received aims to assist the host association with the implementation of these instructions.

For the sake of simplicity, "host" refers to the national association hosting a mini-tournament.

1. CHOICE OF MINI-TOURNAMENT HOST

Following the draw, the four teams in each group have to agree who will host the mini-tournament. If the four associations cannot agree, the UEFA administration decides according to the following principles:

1.1. If more than one association is interested in hosting the mini-tournament, the following criteria apply:

- a) Opinion of the majority of the teams.
- b) Priority given to associations which are not hosting a mini-tournament in the same phase of the UEFA European Under-17 Championship.
- c) Draw.

1.2. If one association is interested in hosting the mini-tournament:

The UEFA administration will designate that association as host.

1.3. If no association has expressed an interest in hosting the mini-tournament:

The UEFA administration will conduct a draw to determine the host. Associations which are already hosting a tournament in the same phase of the UEFA European Under-17 Championship will not be included in the draw.

2. MATCH DATES

Following the draw, the four teams in a given group have to agree on the match dates.

If no agreement can be reached between the four teams concerned, the following criteria apply:

- a) Opinion of the majority of the teams.
- b) If no majority can be reached, the mini-tournament will be staged to coincide with one of the international match dates.
- c) Climatic conditions.

3. TOURNAMENT SCHEDULE

The mini-tournament must be organised according to the following schedule. The last two matches in each group must kick off at the same time.

Day 1:

Arrival of the UEFA match delegate

Day 2

Arrival of all teams

Arrival of all referees and UEFA representatives

Tournament organisational meeting

Day 3:

First matchday: Matches 1 v 3 and 2 v 4

Day 4:

Rest day

Day 5:

Second matchday: Matches 1 v 4 and 3 v 2

Day 6:

Rest day

Day 7:

Rest day

Day 8:

Third matchday: Matches 2 v 1 and 4 v 3

Day 9:

Departure of all teams

Departure of the referees

Departure of the UEFA match officers

The host is responsible for notifying the other participating teams and the UEFA administration of all match details (dates, venues, kick-off times) and accommodation by the set deadlines.

4. ACCOMMODATION

The delegations must be accommodated either in sports schools or medium-standard hotels (standard three-star).

The host must ensure that the teams can prepare for their matches in a comfortable, quiet and undisturbed environment.

At the organisational meeting, the host must provide the delegations with clear information on the safety regulations and procedures applicable in case of an emergency, rules regarding telephones and mini-bars in the rooms, as well as the code of conduct applicable in the hotel.

A room occupancy plan must be prepared by the host and distributed to the UEFA match officers only.

The following facilities must be provided and paid for by the host for a maximum of 24 persons per delegation:

4.1. Rooms for the delegations

- Twin rooms for the players (9 rooms for 18 players); two single beds must be provided in these rooms; one large bed for two players is not acceptable.
- Single rooms for the six team officials (six rooms) must be provided in the same hotel as their team.
- Additional delegation members may be accommodated at the same place or nearby - at the expense of the visiting association.
- If possible, each team should be accommodated on a different floor or wing.
- Two additional rooms must be provided per team for medical treatment and equipment storage (ideally on the team's floor/wing). The host is also requested to provide a massage table in the medical treatment room. The cost of these two rooms must be borne by the host.

4.2. Rooms for the referees and UEFA representatives

- Single rooms must be provided for the referees and the UEFA representatives.
- If possible, all referees and UEFA representatives must be accommodated on the same floor, away from the teams.

4.3. General room requirements

- All rooms must have bathroom and toilet facilities which meet standard hygiene requirements.
- All rooms must have adequate wardrobe space.
- All rooms must be equipped with heating and/or air-conditioning.
- Rooms must be cleaned daily.

4.4. Laundry

A 24-hour laundry service for the playing kits of the participating teams and referees (kit which has been worn for matches, i.e. shirts, shorts and socks, but not tracksuits) must be provided and paid for by the host.

4.5. Meeting rooms

Ideally, each team should be provided with a meeting room for a minimum of 30 people, to be at its disposal for the entire duration of the tournament. If this is not possible, two teams can be asked to share one meeting room. A meeting schedule should be established with the teams before the organisational meeting.

One meeting room must be booked for the referees.

All meeting rooms must be equipped with a flip chart and TV/DVD or projector, according to the teams' requests.

The cost of these rooms must be covered by the host.

4.6. Dining room

A spacious dining room split into different areas – one for the teams and one area for the referees, UEFA representatives and LOC – must be provided.

Officials must refrain from smoking and drinking alcohol in the dining room in front of the players.

5. MEALS

Three meals a day must be served to the teams and the UEFA representatives in accordance with their match and training schedules. Menus should respect sports nutrition guidelines as well as taking the national eating habits of the participating teams into account.

A detailed menu plan must be submitted to the participating teams one month before the start of the mini-tournament. Should a team have any special dietary requests, these must be submitted to the host at least two weeks before the start of the mini-tournament. Any cost difference between the proposed and requested menus must be borne by the requesting association.

The hotel should be flexible when it comes to catering for special requests and the teams should be able to bring their own cook, food and drink. The hotels must also be flexible about mealtimes in order to adapt to the kick-off times of matches and the teams' return travel to the hotel.

A good variety of food in sufficient quantities must be provided. All meals should be served buffet style and the food must be kept at an appropriate temperature all the time.

5.1. Snacks, light meals

As a rule, snacks or light meals between ordinary meals must be made available to the teams upon request and paid for by them. However, if such a meal replaces an ordinary meal, the host must cover the costs. If it consists of an additional meal, the requesting team must pay for it.

5.2. Drinks

A sufficient supply of soft drinks, coffee and tea must be made available for the participants at mealtimes. At all training sessions and matches a sufficient quantity of still mineral water must be provided to the teams. In addition, mineral water must also be provided for the players and the referees in their rooms. Coffee, tea, milk (hot and cold) and chocolate drinks or powder must be available at breakfast time.

All other drinks must be paid for by the teams or individuals concerned.

6. TRAINING SESSIONS

Each team must be allocated its own training ground for the entire duration of the tournament. Exceptionally, two grounds may be shared by four teams. The teams must be able to use these grounds at any time and as often as requested. Each ground must be surfaced in the same way as the match pitches, in perfect condition, freshly mowed, fully marked and equipped with standard and/or mobile goals. The training grounds must be located near the teams' accommodation. Travel time by bus from a team's accommodation to their training ground must not exceed 20 minutes.

The dressing rooms at the training grounds must be of an adequate size, and bathroom and toilet facilities should correspond to normal standards of hygiene.

The host must provide a minimum of 18 training balls to the participating teams.

If the weather and state of the playing field so allow, the teams are entitled to hold a training session of up to 45 minutes the day before the match in the stadium where the match will be played. The host, in cooperation with the referee and UEFA match delegate, will take the final decision in case of any uncertainty.

7. MATCH ORGANISATION

In addition to the stipulations of Article 12 of the regulations, the host must contact the visiting teams in good time before the tournament in order to ensure that they bring their national anthems (CD or tape of maximum 90 seconds) and national flags with them and make them available for the matches in good time.

To ensure a fluent game, the host must provide at least eight ball kids per match.

At least ten match balls should be made available per match.

Matchday countdown

The following countdown (in minutes before kick-off) must be respected.

- 90 to -75 mins Arrival at the stadium of the teams, referees, UEFA match delegate and/or referee observer
- 75 mins Both teams complete, sign the match sheet and hand it over to the referee or UEFA match delegate
- 60 to -15 mins Warm-up on the pitch

- 8 mins	Stud check in the corridor
- 6 mins	Teams enter the pitch and line up facing the VIP box
- 4 mins	National anthem of “away” team
- 3 mins	National anthem of “home” team
- 2 mins	Handshake procedure and team photos
- 1 min	Coin toss
0	Kick-off (no earlier than 11.00 hours and no later than 21.00 hours local time)

This timetable may be adapted to take account of the distance between the dressing rooms and the pitch.

Half-time interval

15 minutes

After the final whistle

Both teams, gather in the centre circle, shake hands with each other, acknowledge the spectators and leave the pitch.

8. TRANSPORT

The teams, international referees and UEFA representatives must be welcomed upon their arrival in the host country and transported to the hotel. They must also be provided with transport from their accommodation to their point of departure at the end of their stay.

The host is also requested to organise transport for official members of delegations who would like to see matches involving opponents.

As a rule, the UEFA match officers will travel with the referees.

The host is responsible for providing the following vehicles:

Teams

Each team must be provided with a modern 50-seater bus (with air-conditioning and dedicated driver) for the entire duration of the tournament.

Referees

Two people carriers (minibuses with 9 seats) with drivers must be provided to transport the referees to and from matches.

9. MATCH FILMING

In UEFA’s constant attempts to further improve the organisation of mini-tournaments and the services provided to the teams and referees at these events, the host is requested to film each match of the mini-tournament from the main stand or another suitable place with a clear view of the pitch. A total of eight DVDs of the best possible quality must be produced for each match and be distributed to the following persons by 12.00 hours local time the day after the match:

- 1 copy for the head of each delegation (total of 4 copies)
- 1 copy for the UEFA referee observer
- 1 copy for the referee
- 2 copies for the UEFA match delegate

The UEFA match delegate is responsible for ensuring that this service is provided by the host.

The cost of this service is covered by the host.

10. MEDICAL MATTERS

The health of the players must be the first priority for the organiser of any football event. Consequently, the host is requested to ensure that the necessary measures are taken to guarantee appropriate medical services for the players and officials during the entire tournament.

Apart from the normal match arrangements in this respect (minimum of one stretcher and enough bearers inside the stadium, ambulance at the stadium (including defibrillator), doctor on stand-by in the stadium or at a nearby hospital, first-aid officers, etc.), the host must ensure that any player needing medical care receives the fastest treatment possible in a hospital or clinic.

Medical arrangements should be explained at the organisational meeting.

Round-the-clock medical care must be guaranteed by the host. UEFA recommends appointing an official tournament doctor, who should be available throughout the event.

ANNEX II: Respect Fair Play Assessment

Introduction

1. The fair play assessment forms part of the respect campaign. Conduct according to the spirit of fair play is essential for the successful promotion and development of and involvement in sport. The objective of activities in favour of fair play is to foster a sporting spirit, as well as the sporting behaviour of players, team officials and spectators, thereby increasing the enjoyment of all those involved in the game.

UEFA Respect fair play rankings

2. In its efforts to promote fair play, UEFA establishes association fair play rankings for each season, based on all matches played in all UEFA competitions (national representative and club teams) between 1 May and 30 April. In establishing these rankings, only those associations whose teams have played at least the required number of matches (i.e. total number of matches assessed divided by the number of associations) are taken into account. For this purpose, fair play conduct is assessed by the appointed UEFA match delegate.

Criteria for an additional place in the UEFA Europa League

3. In reward for the fair play example they set, the three best-ranked associations which attain an average of 8.0 points or more in the rankings each receive one additional place in the next season's UEFA Europa League. If associations are equal on points in the rankings, lots will be drawn by the UEFA administration to define the associations that receive an additional place. These additional places are reserved for the winners of the respective domestic top-division fair play competitions, provided that this national assessment is based at least on the following criteria: red and yellow cards, positive play, respect for the opponents as well as for the referee, and the behaviour of the team officials and of the crowd. If the winner of the domestic top-division fair play competition in question has already qualified for a UEFA club competition, the UEFA Europa League fair play place goes to the next-ranked team in the domestic top-division fair play rankings which has not already qualified for a UEFA competition.

Methods of assessment

4. After the match, the match delegate is expected to complete a fair play assessment form in consultation with the referee and, where applicable, the referee observer. The referee confirms that fair play aspects have been duly discussed by signing the fair play assessment form.

5. The assessment form identifies six criteria (items) for the evaluation of the fair play performance of the teams. Assessment should be based on positive rather than negative aspects. As a general rule, maximum assessment marks should not be awarded unless the respective teams have displayed positive attitudes.

The individual items on the assessment form

6. Red and yellow cards

Deduction from a maximum of 10 points:

- yellow card 1 point
- red card 3 points

If a player who has been cautioned with a yellow card commits another offence which would normally be punishable with a yellow card, but who must be sent off for this second offence (combined yellow and red card), only the red card counts, i.e. total of 3 points to be deducted.

If, however, a player who has been cautioned with a yellow card commits another offence for which the punishment is dismissal, a total of 4 points (1+3) must be deducted.

Red and yellow cards is the only item which may take a negative value.

7. Positive play

- maximum 10 points
- minimum 1 point

The aim of this item is to reward positive play which is attractive for the spectators. In assessing positive play, the following aspects should be taken into consideration:

Positive aspects:

- attacking rather than defensive tactics
- acceleration of the game
- efforts to gain time, e.g. bringing the ball quickly back into play, even when in a winning position
- continued pursuit of goals, even if the desired result (e.g. qualification or an away draw) has already been achieved

Negative aspects:

- deceleration of the game
- time-wasting
- tactics based on foul play
- play-acting, etc.

In general terms, positive play correlates with the number of goal-scoring chances created and the number of goals scored.

8. Respect for the opponents

- maximum 5 points
- minimum 1 point

Players are expected to respect the Laws of the Game, the competition regulations, opponents, etc. They are also expected to ensure that fellow team members and everyone else involved in the team abide by the spirit of fair play as well.

In assessing the players' behaviour vis-à-vis the opposition, double counting against the item 'red and yellow cards' should be avoided. However, the UEFA match delegate may take into account the seriousness of the offences punished by cards, as well as offences overlooked by the referee.

Assessment should be based on positive attitudes (e.g. helping an injured opponent) rather than infringements. Blameless behaviour, but without any particularly positive attitude or gestures towards opponents, should be assessed with a mark of 4 rather than 5.

9. Respect for the referees

- maximum 5 points
- minimum 1 point

Players are expected to respect the referees (including assistant referees and fourth officials) as people, as well as for the decisions they take. Double counting against the item 'red and yellow cards' should be avoided. However, the UEFA match delegate may take into account the seriousness of the offences punished by cards.

A positive attitude towards the referees should be rewarded by high marks, including the acceptance of doubtful decisions without protest. Normal behaviour, but without any particularly positive attitude or gestures with respect to the referee team, should be assessed with a mark of 4 rather than 5.

10. Behaviour of the team officials

- maximum 5 points
- minimum 1 point

Team officials, including coaches, are expected to make every effort to develop the sporting, technical, tactical and moral level of their team through all permitted means. They are also expected to instruct their players to behave in a manner which is in accordance with the fair play principles.

Positive and negative aspects of the behaviour of team officials should be assessed; e.g. whether they calm or provoke angry players or fans, how they accept the referee's decisions, etc. Cooperation with the media should also be considered as a factor in the assessment. Blameless behaviour, but without any particularly positive attitude or gestures, should be assessed with a mark of 4 rather than 5.

11. Behaviour of the crowd

- maximum 5 points
- minimum 1 point

The crowd is considered to be a natural component of a football game. The support of the fans may contribute to the success of their team. The crowd is not expected to watch the game in silence. Encouragement of teams by shouting, singing, etc. may have a positive influence on the atmosphere, in accordance with the spirit of fair play.

The spectators are, however, expected to respect the opposing team and the referee. They should appreciate the performance of the opposition, even if they emerge as the winners. They must in no way intimidate or frighten the opposing team, the referee or opposing supporters.

A maximum number of points (5) should not be awarded unless all these requirements are satisfied, especially with respect to the creation of a positive atmosphere.

This item is applicable only if a substantial number of fans of the team concerned are present. If the number of fans is negligible, 'N/A' (not applicable) should be recorded under this entry.

Overall assessment

- 12. The overall assessment of a team is obtained by adding up the points given for the individual items, dividing this total by the maximum number of points and multiplying the result by 10.
- 13. The maximum number of points per game generally equals 40. If, however, a given team is being supported by a negligible amount of fans, and the item "Behaviour of the crowd" is not being assessed as a result ('N/A' – see paragraph 11 above), the maximum number of points obtainable will be 35.

Example:

The various items for team 1 are assessed as 8+7+3+4+5+4, giving a total of 31. The general assessment will therefore be:

$$(31/40) \times 10 = \mathbf{7.75}$$

If team 2 had only a small number of fans, and the assessment for the other items was 7+8+2+5+2, with 24 as the total, the general assessment would be:

$$(24/35) \times 10 = \mathbf{6.857}$$

The general assessment should be calculated to three decimal points and not rounded up.

14. In addition to this assessment, the UEFA match delegate should also give brief written comments on the fair play performance of the teams, to explain the positive and negative aspects which formed the basis for his assessment. This written explanation may also include outstanding individual gestures of fair play by players, officials, referees or any other persons.
