Basic conditions

- Twelve teams participate in the UEFA Women's EURO 2013 final tournament. They will be divided into three groups of four teams each (Groups A, B and C).
- As host association, Sweden is placed as top seed in position A1.

Team rankings, pot allocations and allocation of positions

- The 11 teams involved in the draw will be classified on the basis of the women's national team coefficient rankings for which their results in the following competitions are used:
 - UEFA Women's EURO 2009 (qualifying competition and final tournament)
 - FIFA Women's World Cup 2011 (qualifying competition and final tournament)
 - UEFA Women's EURO 2013 (qualifying competition)
- The two highest-ranked teams, Germany and France, are placed in positions B1 and C1 respectively as top seeds.
- The teams ranked third, fourth and fifth, respectively England, Norway and Italy, are seeded and placed in Pot 1.
- The remaining six teams are unseeded and placed in Pot 2.
- The three seeded teams from Pot 1 will be drawn into position two in groups A, B and C
- The six unseeded teams from Pot 2 will be drawn into positions three and four in Groups A, B and C
